An evening of poetry & prose with the award-winning Romanian writer

Carmen Francesca Banciu to mark the 20th anniversary of the fall of Ceausescu's Romania

Carmen was the daughter of a high-ranking Romanian Communist Party official. In 1985, she won the International Short Story Prize of the city of Arnsberg, Germany - an achievement which prompted a publication ban in Romania. After the fall of the Communist regime in Romania in 1989, she moved to Berlin, where she has written a number of important prose works engaging with her childhood and upbringing in Ceausescu's Romania.
